

Applause is heard like at a tennis match.

JENN

Oh my god, he just went into REM sleep. Again.

BRAD

Is that what that ... wow ... yeah ...

JENN

You see that column on the scoreboard that just lit up green. That's for REM. Unbelievable.

BRAD

What about the other guy?

JENN

He's still in light sleep, which is OK, I mean he's not awake, but The Dreamer is in REM wracking up the points, he's killing him.

BRAD

The Dreamer, you like know him?

JENN

Oscar Luis Contador, they call him Dreamer, he's unbelievable.

BRAD

Doesn't all the cheering and noise wake them up?

JENN

Those are sound proof chambers they're in.

BRAD

But they know we're out here.

JENN

They train for this, that's what it's all about, focus, staying with your game plan.

BRAD

But in your sleep?

JENN

That's why they're the pros, right?

BRAD
Is this really real?

JENN
They're all hooked up, you can see the brain activity on the big screen.

BRAD
I just can't believe they can do that.

JENN
You don't like it.

BRAD
It's a little strange.

JENN
OK.

BRAD
It's just different, that's all.

JENN
OK.

BRAD
Don't be upset.

JENN
Dating has gotten so strange.

BRAD
I know.

JENN
Was it always this strange?

BRAD
I don't think so.

JENN
Why is this so hard?

BRAD
It's just a matter of finding the right person, so why make a struggle out of the process.
